Besides sharing our money and physical belongings, we can also share things that cannot be touched. God has given us many gifts that we can share, such as our time, talents and words of encouragement. Fill in each coupon below with some of such things.

Once the coupons are filled out, cut them out and give them to someone this week.

Prayer and Reflection

Activity Page

Sometimes we may find it hard to share with others because we see ourselves as more important. In the giving hands below, draw out two things you find hard to share with others.

Why is it hard for you to share these two things?

(Examples: You want to keep the good things for yourself, you are shy, you are lazy, you are afraid.)

Sharing may be difficult at times but no matter how much or how little we have, we always have something we can share with others.

Dear God, sometimes we hold on too tightly to the things we have. Please forgive us for being selfish. Help us to be willing to share what we have, especially when we see others in need. You have given us so many good things! We want to love others like You do. Help us to look for opportunities to share what we have with others. In Jesus' name we pray, amen."

Responsibility means showing you can be trusted with what is expected of you.

WEEK
TWO
7-12 GOD TIMES

DAY 2

Read Hebrew 13:16

What is an offering? Usually when we think of an offering, we think of money. But the offering today's verse is talking about has nothing to do with money.

Today's verse is all about sharing and doing good for others, not ourselves. And when we share what we have God is pleased. Why? Because helping others costs us something. When we choose to stop and help someone else, when we share what we have, the sacrifices we make are pleasing to God.

On each line, write one way you could help in each example.

A classmate has used up all of his eraser trying to fix his incorrect math problem.

A kid on your ball team is sad because he missed the shot and the other team scored.

A friend in your neighborhood has to finish raking the leaves in his yard before he can play.

Ask God to help you pay attention this week so you "don't forget to do good." Remember to share, and serve, and love others this week, knowing that this makes God very happy!

DAY 1

Read 1 Timothy 6:18

Did you catch the first part of the verse that says, "Command the rich"? Maybe you're thinking, "Yeah, but this verse talks about the rich doing good. I'm not rich." Hold on, you're not off the hook yet. Read the second sentence. Tell them to be rich in doing what? Good things! Good things have nothing to do with money or stuff. Good things can include: being helpful, showing courtesy to others, putting others first, listening, being kind.

God wants us to be rich in good things and good deeds. He wants us to take our responsibility to love others seriously and to share what we have. As you pray today, picture one person you see almost every day. Ask God to help you "be rich in good things" toward that person this week.

DAY 3

Read Romans 12:13

Today's verse reminds us of our responsibility to share what we have. If we aren't careful, we can walk through life never noticing the people around us that need our help. We can be so focused on our lives, that we forget to look for the needs all around us.

The key to sharing what you have is first identify or find the need. Tonight, at dinner, start a discussion with your family about your own community. Ask the following questions:

- What are some organizations in our community that are doing good things to help people in need?
- What do we know about this organization?
- What is one thing we could start doing to support this organization?

Thank God for all the ways He has provided for your family and ask Him to help you do the same for others by helping out in an organization that's helping others where you live.

DAY 4

Read Galatians 6:10

Just do it.

You've probably heard that phrase before. This three-word slogan was first introduced in Nike ads in 1987 as a way market their brand and inspire athletes of every level to push themselves to keep going and do the work.

But these words aren't new. Paul wrote them in a letter to the churches in Galatia thousands of years ago, saying, "When you can do good to everyone, just do it!" In other words, when you have the opportunity to help, to share, to show love to others, don't sit there, just do it.

Write the words "Just Do It" on an index card and tape it to your doorframe. As you leave your room each morning, read those three words out loud. Ask God to help you share what you have with others and then give the card a tap to acknowledge your willingness to "do good to everyone" as you head out the door.

Share what you have.
