SUMMARY

In the first activity, a lot of us would probably think of drawing what was indicated NOT to be drawn. We might not have seen other images that these shapes can actually turn into. Sometimes, we might not understand what we can do with shapes, just like how we might not understand what God can do in our lives. Just like how you turned the shapes into beautiful pictures, God also can do incredible things in your life, even when you don't fully understand how things are going to unfold.

PRAYER

Dear Jesus, You know everything from beginning to end. Sometimes, when I don't fully understand, help me to trust in You. I can trust that You are good. I can trust that You are always in control. You know what is going to happen eventually. Help me to trust in You all the days of my life.
In Jesus' name I pray, Amen!
