Week 3

Prayer and Reflection

Part 2:

Just like how Solomon wrote some Proverbs and David wrote some Psalms, you can write poems about God too! Write a simple poem about God or wisdom in the blank below.

1

Start by thinking of 2 words you want to use in your poem (e.g. wise and heart).

2

Think of 2 other words that rhyme with these words (e.g. prize rhyme with wise, and smart rhymes with heart).

3

Write 4 short sentences, with the words you have chosen as the last word in each sentence (e.g. Help me Lord, to be wise. Wisdom is the best prize. Keeping Your word in my heart, that's the way to be smart!)

Now it's your turn, have fun writing! When you are done, share your poem with your Small Group.

Summary

Just like how Solomon asked God for wisdom, we can also ask God for guidance. When God gives us a direction or an instruction, choose to act on it quickly and obey Him.

Prayer

Dear God, give us Your guidance and wisdom. Remind us to come to You in prayer whenever we need help. We want You to be our first choice. We know You can provide for all our needs. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
