WEEK 3

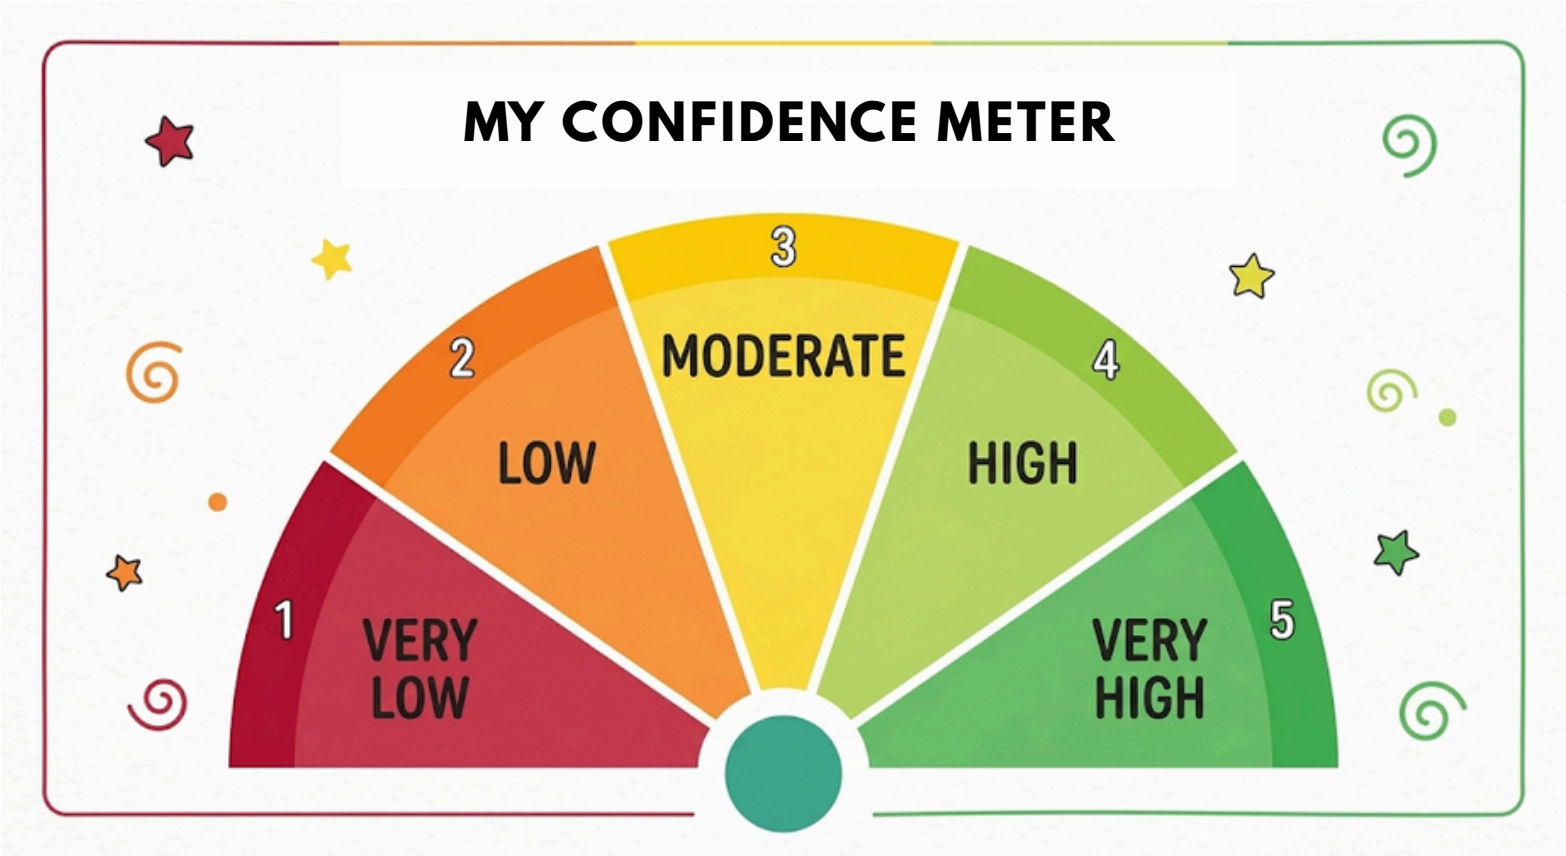

Prayer & Reflection

Part 1

Daniel was thrown into the lions' den because he chose to pray to God instead of the king. Even in a scary place with hungry lions, Daniel wasn't alone—God sent His angel to shut the lions' mouths! Just like Daniel, we can trust that God is always with us, no matter where we are or what we face.

Look at the "Confidence Meter" below. Use a pencil to draw an arrow where you think your trust in God is today.

Use a red coloured pen to draw an arrow where you actually want your confidence in God to be.

WEEK 3

Prayer & Reflection

Part 2

Reflect on these questions and discuss with your Small Group.

1) What makes it hard for you to trust God sometimes?

2) What is something you can do to help you trust God more this week?

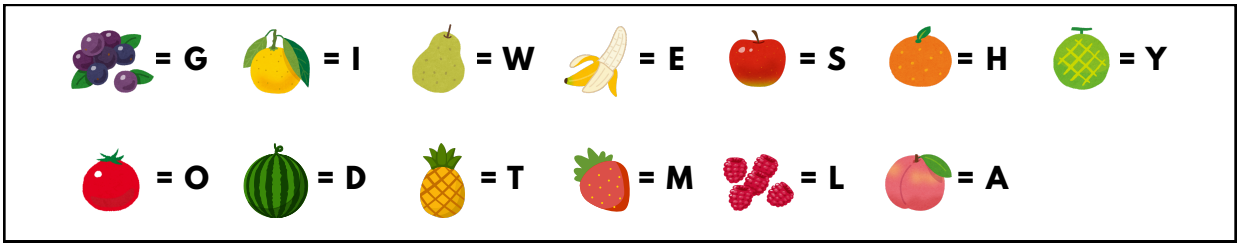

WEEK 3

Prayer & Reflection

Part 3

Fill in the blanks to reveal the mystery phrase.

SUMMARY

God didn't take Daniel out of the scary situation, but He stayed with him through it. Daniel came out without a scratch and with stronger confidence in God than ever. That is how God works. He might not take away every hard thing, but He promises to stay with you in the middle of it. If you are facing something that feels as scary as a den full of lions (like moving schools, making new friends, or standing up for what's right), you can always trust that God will stay right by your side, no matter what.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank You for always being with me. Help me remember You are near, even when things feel scary or hard. I want to trust you more and more. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.
